THE REPLY FILED 27 June 2006 FAILS TO PLACE THIS APPLICATION IN CONDITION FOR ALLOWANCE.
The reply was filed after a final rejection, but prior to or on the same day as filing a Notice of Appeal. To avoid abandonment of this application, applicant must timely file one of the following replies: (1) an amendment, affidavit, or other evidence, which places the application in condition for allowance; (2) a Notice of Appeal (with appeal fee) in compliance with 37 CFR 41.31; or (3) a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) in compliance with 37 CFR 1.114. The reply must be filed within one of the following time periods:
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	The period for reply expires 3 months from the mailing date of the final rejection.
The period for reply expires on: (1) the mailing date of this Advisory Action, or (2) the date set forth in the final rejection, whichever is later. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of the final rejection.
Examiner Note: If box 1 is checked, check either box (a) or (b). ONLY CHECK BOX (b) WHEN THE FIRST REPLY WAS FILED WITHIN TWO MONTHS OF THE FINAL REJECTION. See MPEP 706.07(f).
Extensions of time may be obtained under 37 CFR 1.136(a). The date on which the petition under 37 CFR 1.136(a) and the appropriate extension fee have been filed is the date for purposes of determining the period of extension and the corresponding amount of the fee. The appropriate extension fee under 37 CFR 1.17(a) is calculated from: (1) the expiration date of the shortened statutory period for reply originally set in the final Office action; or (2) as set forth in (b) above, if checked. Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of the final rejection, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).
 The Notice of Appeal was filed on A brief in composition of filing the Notice of Appeal (37 CFR 41.37(a)), or any experience.

ADVISORY ACTION

Applicant's arguments filed June 27, 2006 have been fully considered but have not been found to be persuasive.

Applicant argues, on page 5 of the remarks dated June 27, 2006, that Singh et al do not disclose a polymer and inorganic material that are covalently bonded layers; Singh et al, Applicant argues, disclose a compatibility agent that is covalently bonded to the layered silicate.

However, Singh et al disclose a compatibilizer, therefore an agent which is responsible for the bonding between the two layers, and which is covalently bonded to at least one of the layers; Singh et al therefore disclose a polymer and inorganic material that are covalently bonded layers, characterized by covalent bonds that couple adjacent layers together.

Applicant also argues on page 5 that Singh et al do not disclose covalent bonds between layers.

However, covalent bonds between layers is not claimed.

Applicant also argues, on page 6, that the covalent bonding of Singh et al is within the same layer.

However, as stated above, Singh et al disclose a compatibilizer, therefore an agent which is responsible for the bonding between the two layers, and which is covalently bonded to at least one of the layers; Singh et al therefore disclose a polymer and inorganic material that are covalently bonded layers, characterized by covalent bonds that couple adjacent layers together.

Applicant also argues on page 6 that Singh et al teaches away from covalent bonding by using direct polymer intercalation.

Application/Control Number: 10/698,988

Art Unit: 1772

However, covalent bonding is clearly disclosed by Singh et al.
